200 Questions for Writing Prompts or Discussion Starters

Here are 200 intriguing questions your students will love! Use them as discussion starters when you have a few spare moments or as writing or journal prompts. Great in small groups too!

The questions are presented in two formats:

- In "Think About It" cards so that you can use the questions randomly or as part of a game.
- In list format as a reference for you.

To use the cards, simply print and cut along the black cutting guidelines. These will print out fine in color or grayscale.
