A collection of colorful task cards for reading comprehension, organized by color and theme. Each card features a 'MIGHTY WORDS' header, a central question or task, and a small illustration of stars.

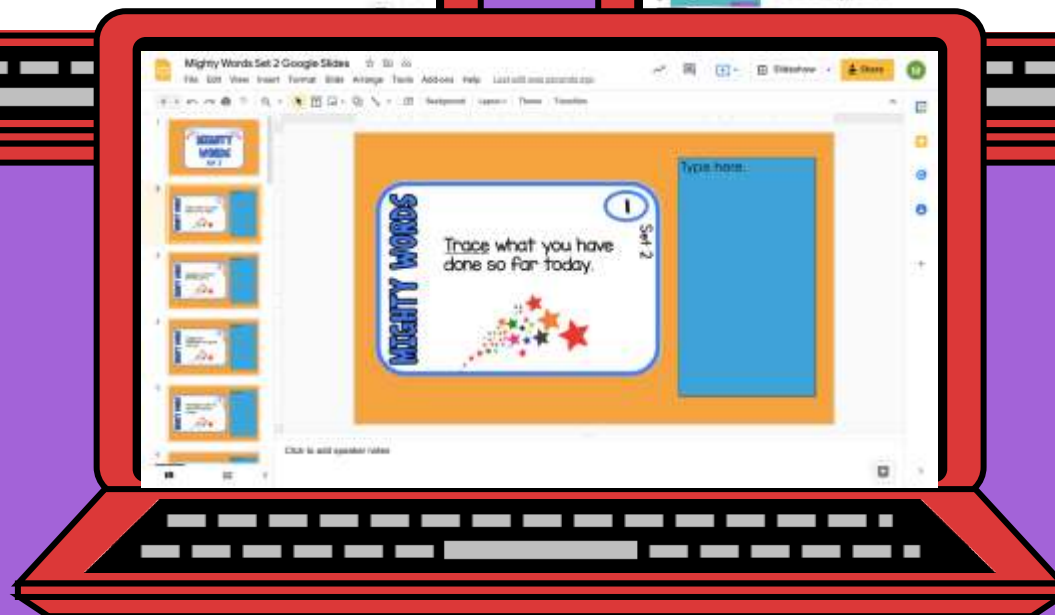

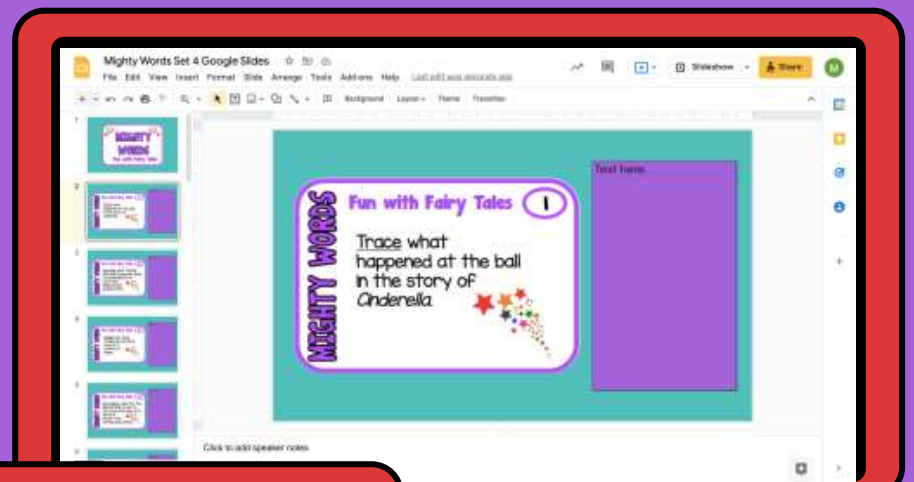

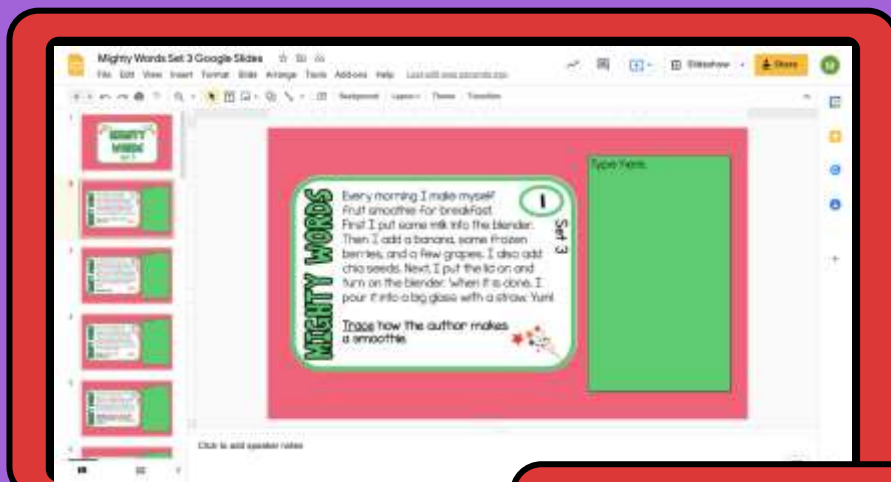

Fun with Fairy Tales (Purple Cards):

- Trace what happened at the end of the story of Cinderella.
- Why did Snow White's Stepmother try to have her killed? Support your answer with evidence from the story.
- What can you infer about the third little pig in the story of The Three Little Pigs?
- Trace the story of The Three Little Pigs.
- Why did the witch in Hansel and Gretel live in a house made of candy? Support your answer with evidence from the story.
- In the part of the story when Snow White takes the apple from the old peddler, what can you infer about Snow White?
- Predict what would have happened if Jack had not met the man selling magic beans in Jack and the Beanstalk.

Other Themes (Green, Blue, Orange Cards):

- Reading Comprehension: Trace the author's purpose, analyze the quality of a good friend, compare cats and dogs, evaluate the story of Hansel and Gretel, and predict what would happen if Jack wore pajamas to school.
- Science: A baby panda is very small. It cannot see because its eyes are closed and will stay closed for 18 months of its life. The cub is weak and will start crawling for several days. It spends most of its time sleeping and can only drink milk from its mother. Can a baby panda survive without its mother? Support your answer with evidence from the text.
- Math/Logic: Trace the steps for putting a small child to bed.
- Character Analysis: Are you an optimist or a pessimist? Support your answer.
- Writing/Analysis: What should you do if you are asked to explain why a day on Earth is 24 hours long? What should you do if you are asked to predict what will happen to the animals in a forest when it is cut down? What should you do if you are asked to compare two supporting characters in a story? What should you do if you are asked to contrast a desert and a rainforest? What should you do if you are asked to describe the most important parts of a movie? What should you do if you are asked to summarize what you did on a vacation?
